1. INTRODUCTION TO ENTITY

The PPECB is a Section 3A national public entity in terms of the PFMA Act 1 of 1999 and specialises in providing inspection, food safety and cold chain statutory services to the perishable products industry and is constituted in terms of the Perishable Products Exports Control Act 9 of 1983 and performs functions in terms of the Agricultural Products Standards Act 119 of 1990.

The power, for purposes of and in terms of the Acts (defined below), is assigned to the Chief Executive Officer, who has in turn delegated certain responsibilities to Deputy Information Officers to manage compliance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA) and the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (PAIA) (POPIA and PAIA are together the "Acts") as well as all requests for information.

The PPECB processes Personal Information in accordance with the External Data Privacy Policy, which can be found here <https://ppecb.com/>. This Policy sets out what Personal Information is collected and processed by the PPECB; how this information is collected, processed, retained and destroyed; and how it is used.

This manual must be read together with the PPECB's External Data Privacy Policy (insert link); the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act No. 3 of 2000; and with POPIA.

5.2 Records available without requesting access in terms of the act

PPECB has not, in terms of Section 15(1) of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000, submitted categories of records which are automatically available without a request for access. Certain information is, however, freely available on the website at <http://www.ppecb.com>.

5.3 Records available on request

A requester may request access to the following information subject to the access being denied in terms of the PAIA and POPIA:

i. Human Resources:

"Employee" includes, without limitation, directors, managers, all permanent, temporary and part-time staff as well as all contractors.

- Personal information provided by employees;
- Information provided by a third party relating to employees;
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contracts;
- Internal evaluation records and other internal records;
- Correspondence relating to employees;
- Training schedules and material;
- Disciplinary records;
- Payroll records;
- Various leave records.

ii. Stakeholder-related records and information:

"Stakeholder" includes any natural or juristic entity who receives services from the PPECB.

- Any information a stakeholder has provided to PPECB;
- Any information the stakeholder has provided to a third party acting on behalf of PPECB;
- Records generated by or within PPECB pertaining to the stakeholder, including transactional records.

iii. Records pertaining to PPECB

This includes, but is not limited to:

- Financial records;
- Operating records;
- Databases and information technology;
- Communication records;
- Internal correspondence;
- Records relating to services;

- Statutory records;
- Internal policies and procedures;
- Records held by officials of PPECB.

iv. Records related to other parties

PPECB may possess records pertaining to other parties, including (but not limited to) contractors, suppliers and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records which can be said to belong to PPECB. The following records fall in this category:

- Employee, client or PPECB records which are held by another party as opposed to being held by PPECB;
- Records held by PPECB pertaining to other parties, including (but not limited to) financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party and records third parties have provided about contractors and or suppliers.

6. SERVICES AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC

The Perishable Products Export Control Board (PPECB) is an independent service provider of quality certification and cold chain management services for producers and exporters of perishable food products. As a national public entity, the PPECB is constituted and mandated in terms of the Perishable Products Export Control Act (PPEC Act), No 9, of 1983 to perform cold chain services. The PPECB also delivers inspection and food safety services assigned by the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) under the APS Act, No.119 of 1990. These services can be accessed through our website: <http://www.ppecb.com>.

7. REQUESTING PROCEDURE

A person wishing to access the records of PPECB must complete the necessary request form. This request form is available from the Information Officer or at <http://www.ppecb.com/> or <http://www.doj.gov.za/>. The form requires the requester to provide inter alia the following information:

- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the requester;
- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the records requested;
- The form of access required;
- The requestor's postal address and fax number;
- Identification of the right sought to be exercised or protected;
- An explanation why the specific record is required to exercise or protect the right;
- The manner in which the requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the request;
- If the request is made on behalf of a person, the submission of proof of the capacity in which the requester makes the request, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.

Requesters must note that all of the information on the request form should be provided to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, failing which the process will be delayed until such time that the information is complete.

The time periods prescribed by the Act will not commence until such time as the Information Officer is satisfied that all pertinent information has been furnished to PPECB by the requester.

The Chief Information Officer will consider the application and determine whether PPECB has specific written consent to provide the information requested.

If there is no specific written consent on record, the PPECB will correspond with the party whose information has been requested and advise them of the application that has been received and enquire as to whether there are any reasons as to why the PPECB should not provide the information that has been requested.

It is important to note that access to certain records may or must be denied on the grounds set out in the Act. Mandatory grounds for refusal include, but are not limited to:

- Information for the protection of the privacy of a person;
- Information for the protection of the commercial and/or confidential information of third parties;
- Information privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- Commercial information of PPECB;
- Research information;
- Information which can endanger the safety of an individual.

The PPECB will consider the reasons for refusal of the information requested, provided by the customer and/or third party in terms of PAIA and consider whether there are any grounds as stipulated above and as set out in the Act which preclude it from releasing the requested information.

The PPECB will then advise the requester and the customer and/or third party accordingly.

8. PRESCRIBED FEES

Access Fees will be charged in accordance with the prescribed fees associated with PAIA requests as determined by regulations.
